

Objective

Currently looking for engaging and educational opportunities in design.

Education

Pratt Institute

Brooklyn, New York
Bachelors of Industrial Design
Graduation 2010

Hogskolan i Kalmar

Kalmar, Sweden
Scandinavian Furniture Design
Fall 2008

Skills

Adobe Creative Suite	Solidworks
Alias	Adobe Premier
Autocad	Final Cut Pro
Freehand Sketching	Microsoft Office
Marker Rendering
Rapid Prototyping
Model Making

References

Available upon request.

Experience

2010-present

Pottery Barn

Works as a product designer for functional accessories. Designs a wide range of products for the kitchen, office, garden and home.

2010

Brooklyn Designs

Chosen for his foam shelf, Clutch as one of the pieces exhibited at Brooklyn Designs to represent Pratt Institute's Industrial Design program.

Nachtmann Crystal Design Competition

Finalist in designing mass-produced glassware for Nachtmann Crystal. Prize included a scholarship to do a research trip to five different glass factories in Germany and Austria.

2009

Starwood Hotels Design Department

Helped to revamp the W hotel brand; duties included research, surveys and critical analysis of the current W image. In addition, designed furniture for Four Points hotels new prototype hotel.

International Contemporary Furniture Fair

Chosen as one of fifteen exhibitors for Pratt's Design for a Dollar show at the ICFF.

Starwood Hotels Chair Competition

Won as a finalist for an innovative concept for a chair that can work in a frequently used conference venue for Starwood's Sheraton and W hotels.

Stockholm Furniture Fair

In a selective exchange program with Kalmar University in Kalmar, Sweden I created a concept chair. The chair is based from a Deconstructionist process that helped me come up with ideas in different ways. The chair, "Heather", was later exhibited at the Stockholm Furniture Fair.

2007-08

Adobe Systems Inc. Illustrator/Designer

Created collateral materials for Adobe's Digital Kids program featured in programs, ad campaigns and the conference booths.